

On 27th September 2019 Mark Jordan, CEO of Parallel Learning Trust, was sent a letter from David Curry, Chief Editor of The Parliamentary Review stating that he would like PLT Southend Academies Sutton House & Victory Park to be one of the representatives for 2020.

David Curry and Lord Blunkett have also invited Mark Jordan to The Parliamentary Reviews annual gala this time next year for an evening to celebrate hard work and leadership. In the past, the guest speakers and attendees have included figures such as Nick Clegg, Ed Balls, Denise Lewis and Johnny Wilkinson.

About The Parliamentary Review

Chaired by Lord Pickles, former Conservative Communities Secretary, and Lord Blunkett, former Labour Home Secretary, The Parliamentary Review is a series of independent publications, which aims to share best practice among policy makers and business leaders.

Each of its editions focuses on a key governmental policy area, with a variety of organisations sharing personal insight alongside cabinet ministers, government agencies, associations and trade bodies.

By combining commentaries from award-winning journalists with innovative thinking from industry experts, The Parliamentary Review provides a detailed summary of the past year and a reliable template for the year to come.
